
"Ye see, dearly beloved, not only faith, but prophecy, is found in the woman."

-1 Clement 12:8 (LTBTB)

PowerLines Newsletter. Broadcasting for PowerLines TV began in January of 2008 on a number of websites as well as the BlogTalkRadio show, Apocalypse Watch. Coming soon with the Apocalypse Watch broadcast will be the bi-monthly Apocalypse Watch Newsletter. As acting Chancellor of Apostolic University, her Bible study courses, textbooks, and educational materials on many issues of faith have reached individuals in ten countries.

Lee Ann and her husband, Shawn Austill, live in Owensboro, Kentucky. In these last days, she sets her sights on God and teaching His people throughout the tumult of these times by providing Apostolic Existential beliefs, that all might understand Scripture and the powerful role salvation can and should play in all our lives.

"I sought (inquired of) the Lord and requir'd Him [of necessity and on the authority of His Word], and He heard me, and deliver'd me from all my fears."

-Psalm 34:4 (AMP)

Lee Ann is available for preaching, teaching, speaking engagements, and meetings. To contact Lee Ann or receive more information about her ministry work, please contact us:

Apostolic Fellowship International Ministries

*522 Bolivar Street
Owensboro, Kentucky 42303-3521*

USA

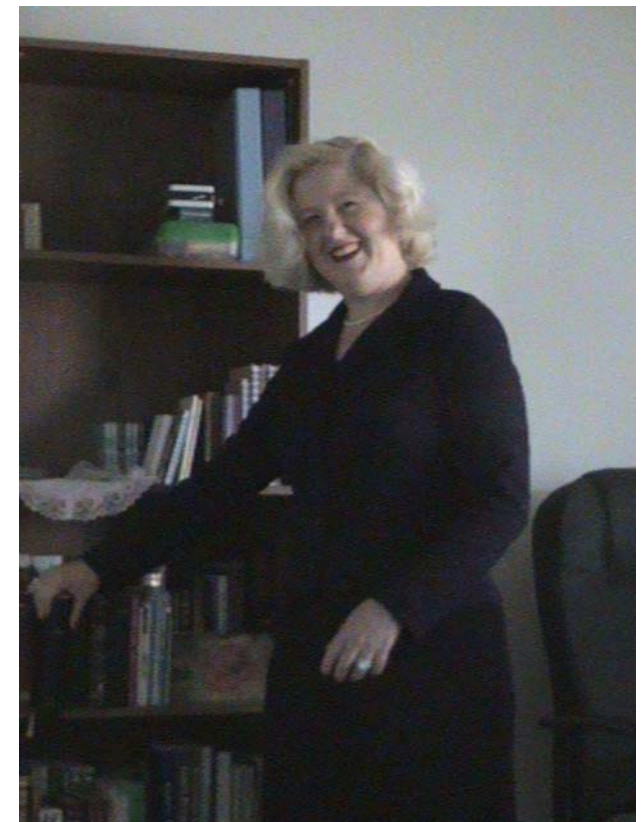

1 (270) 925-8487

www.powerfortoday.org

*© 2004, 2006, 2007 by Apostolic Fellowship International Ministries, Inc. All rights reserved.
Unless otherwise noted, all Scriptural quotations are from The Authorized Version of the Holy Bible (King James Version), Public Domain.*

Lee Ann's Testimony

Dr. Lee Ann B. Mazino, Ph. D., D. D.

Dr. Lee Ann B. Marino, Ph.D., D.D. is Apostle in Office for Apostolic Fellowship International Ministries. A graduate of Apostolic University in Philosophy, Theology, Divinity, and Religion/Comparative Religion, Lee Ann's practical approach to preaching, spiritual matters, and Scripture study has reached masses with the Gospel of God and of Jesus Christ.

Originally a Roman Catholic for seventeen years, Lee Ann's early life was plagued with tumult and troubles. Abused by her alcoholic father and older siblings, Lee Ann's parents divorced when she was seven. This caused a split in the family causing her oldest two sisters, then in their early thirties, to break from the family. The dissension within the family unit caused stress in Lee Ann's life and brought about many of life's difficult questions very young.

Particularly in adolescence did Lee Ann become interested in religion and philosophy and the numerous ways people attempted to answer life's great questions. When she began college at fifteen, religion, theology, and philosophy quickly became Lee Ann's primary interests. Largely rejected by the Catholic Church which expected women to prepare for certain roles, Lee Ann continued to study and expand and eventually began interviewing individuals on matters of religion and beliefs. She also began studying the Bible around this time, and became increasingly interested in the apocrypha and interreligious scripture readings as well. After a denial of Confirmation rite by her local parish and diocese and numerous incidents, Lee Ann by process of voluntary excommunication

"What matters is not what happens to us, but how we respond to what happens to us."

- Jean-Paul Sartre

left the Catholic Church, seeking God and truth the whole way.

Within one week of her excommunication Lee Ann met a Charismatic woman who had herself been Catholic at one point in time who invited Lee Ann to church. It was at seventeen years old that Lee Ann experienced both being born again and the Gift of the Holy Ghost.

About six months after this time, Lee Ann began to examine many of life's questions once again due to numerous encounters that left her wondering. It seemed that many people were into certain roles just for the authority and control of the situation - and worse yet, that many of them used God for their own purposes. Confused once again, Lee Ann fell into another answer-seeking mode that would finally lead to the answers she so longed to seek.

For a period of about three and a half years Lee

"Behold! The Kingdom of God is within you!"

- Luke 17:21

Ann studied intensively hard expanding her personal experience on religion, visiting over five hundred different religious services in that time frame and interviewing well over one hundred people of differing religious beliefs. Lee Ann also expanded her personal Scripture studies, studying the majority of the Bible and a good portion of the apocrypha. Always being interested in Philosophy, by total accident Lee Ann came across a book that had belonged to her mother that finally held the answers she had sought. Discovering the "philosophy of existence" as Existentialism is known, she finally came to realize the essence of human existence and the importance of faith and understanding the Scriptures. In light of this Lee Ann's rededication (she calls it her conversion) occurred at the age of twenty-one and Lee Ann has remained a dedicated Pentecostal Christian ever since.

Today having come through parental and sibling abuse, abusive boyfriends, rejection, emotional battery, depression, loneliness, and other personal problems, Lee Ann is a blessed and powerful preacher deemed "everyone's favorite theologian" through her practical and intellectual means of teaching. As author of Manna In The Morning: Spiritual Food For Everyday Life, Practical Spirituality For Everyday Living, and Changing The Way The World Views Women (And The Way We View Ourselves), Lee Ann has taken ministry to yet a new dimension offering full length books to all in addition to her ministry publications, the monthly Power For Today Magazine now available online with a membership subscription, and the quarterly update